

Supply Chain Management Division, Ontario Shared Services Procurement Strategic Plan 2012 - 2015

Enabling Government Priorities and Programs	Achieving Performance and Service Excellence	Engaging Stakeholders in Transformation	Engaging and Empowering Employees
We proactively develop/enable innovative programs that meet government, client and vendor priorities. Our policy framework is robust and recognized as best in class by other organizations. We have systems in place to monitor supply chain capability and initiate, measure and implement change. Effective controllership and decision making at all levels in the OPS is supported through clearly defined rules, processes and systems.	Our culture of continuous improvement drives effective, responsive and efficient supply chain processes that are facilitated by modern integrated technology. Our business processes and service standards are documented, well understood and regularly measured. We provide best in class strategic sourcing that reflects market best practices.	We support an engaged and competitive pool of vendors who are aware of government priorities and able to do business with the Government of Ontario and the Broader Public Sector. Buyers understand the vendor community and are aware of issues and opportunities to leverage collective spend and share best practices. We are aligned with ministry supply chain management operations and recognized as trusted advisors who fulfil their purchasing needs.	We are recognized as having a high performing culture where collaboration, professionalism, trust and respect are valued and practiced. We attract and retain a diverse array of individuals who have an interest and aptitude in supply chain and related fields. Employees can demonstrate their contribution to SCMD's strategies and proactively engage one another to achieve stronger results.